

NOTO Tourism Champion Award Nomination Form

Awarded annually to a person who supports a strong and united tourism industry. A person(s) who sees tourism in a much larger picture than their own specific business or role they play. They are dedicated to spreading the word about the value tourism to people locally, provincially, nationally, and/or globally. This award does not necessarily need to be given to a tourism business owner or a NOTO member. Some of the examples of activities for this award could be:

- Has sat on a Board, council, committee, task force, or working group representing tourism
- Has led a group of tourism stakeholders on any pro-tourism initiative
- Has made presentations that promote a strong vibrant tourism industry
- Has gone above and beyond to support tourism within a role in Government of any level
- Has advocated for a strong tourism industry to political leaders on their own
- Has demonstrated a clear sense of responsibility for stewardship of the land, fish and wildlife in order to have a sustainable tourism industry
- A tourism business staff member (ie. fishing or hunting guide, wait or housekeeping staff, pilots, dock personnel) who has shown a real passion for tourism
